Day 2	HA NOI - HALONG Bay 170 km by A/C Car & cruising tour by Junk		After buffet breakfast, check-out then straight up to Halong Bay, 175 km from Hanoi, the highway is smoothly and cost you of 3.5 - 4 hours usually, since we have to stop somewhere for the rests or visiting also. Landscapes en route are very interesting with the immense rice-fields, farmers are working in the fields, small and peace villagesthere are the sweet beginnings to talk with then explanation of Vietnam by our tour guides. Alternately, some funny stories or folk-stories will be told and together with the indoor team-games which very fancy ! Ha Long Bay is constituted by 3000 small and big islands of all shapes. In 1994 UNESCO classified HALONG BAY as a World Natural Heritage and in November 2000, the World Heritage Committee reconfirmed this classification, your excursion to Halong Bay will re-evaluate the classification of UNESCO to this fairyland In the book intituled "Wonders of the World" published in 1950. The French marshal Lyautey compared it with Venice rocks in the "Letters of Tonkin and Madagascar " (June 24, 1895). The French novelist Yvonne Schultz did not hesitate to praise the miraculous beauty of this bay: All heights and ten thousand forms; imagination, imitation, pagodas, Hindu temples, menhirs, Chinese towers, pieces of chess-board or true immense mountain. And the extraordinary flows simulating the ruined keeps, the broken down bastions, a succession of palaces with the open belly and tribes of mutilated idols. HALONG BAY is nearly a hidden bay with thousands of limestone islands densely rising from the blue jade water in a sea area of over 1500 square kilometers. Its 1969 green islands enfeeble the strong winds blowing from the ocean to leave the transparent water of the bay often calm in cool and healthy air. From time to time, sailing Junk appearing and disappearing between the islands make the poetic sight more colorful like sparkling pearls or coral reefs found out in the bay. The beauty of the bay is not monotone, at different positions of viewing, it will astonish viewers with quite different fascinations. In the caves and grottoes of stone islands, visitors will discover

Covering approx 600 sq km, it contains more than 100 fabulous ancient monuments and over dozen major compound Temples, which were built during the most splendid Era of the Khmer Dynasty between the 9th – 13th century and were the ancient capital of the Khmer Empire. The constant building program undertaken by successive Khmer kings can be compared favourably with the pyramid construction projects of the Pharaohs in Egypt. Similar to the Pharaohs, the Khmer kings made use of a vast force of slave labour. Each new "project" was made possible by the 750,000 people estimated to have lived at Angkor during the 12th and 13th centuries. Here, travellers will have experiences about Cambodian's Spirit value worth through Ancient Temples (worshipping Shiva-Hindu, or Buddha, Khmer Kings), the stately vestiges of Old Palaces, Royal Courts, ancient Terraces, Public Buiding, collapsed citadels and antique Towers. Our experienced tour guides will transmit you the most lovely aspects of Angkor Temples - during 25' by coach from the Airport to your luxury Hotel in the centre of town. Express check-in with welcome-drink and room-keys are being available. After lunch, let's experience a halfday tour to discover Angkor Complex. Firstly, visit Angkor Wat – one of the seven greatest architectural wonders of the world, as a temple and mausoleum for King Suryavarman II at the peak of the Khmer empire in the first half of 12th, Angkor Wat is probably the best-preserved of the Angkorean temples, with a central tower surrounded by four smaller towers. The central monument represents the mythical Mount Meru, the holy mountain at the centre of the universe, which was home to the Hindu God Vishnu. The whole complex covers 81 hectares, a rectangular wall measuring 1025 metres by 800 metres borders the inner edge of the moat, and temple's greatest sculptural treasure is its 2 km-long bas-reliefs around the walls... Finally, in the late afternoon, coming to the Phnom Bakheng temple, is the first temple in Angkor region build by the YacovarmanI King in the first of 9th century, located on a slope gently hill where thousands tourist are grouping on the hilltop to catch a memorable time of life when viewing the marvellous sunset. Lunch : will be hosted in the riverside restaurant on set menu, included drink (1/2 bottle of wine or 2 cans of beer or solf-drink per pax, free-flow of

Day 8	SIEM REAP	Travel by A/C Car	Continuing to the most rememberable Temples that built from 9th to 11th century such as: the Southern Entrance Gate of Angkor Thom, Bayon Temple – built by Jayavarman VII at the end of the 12th, in the exact center of the city of Angkor Thom, proceeding to Baphuon, Terrace of the Elephants & Terrace of the Leper King, proceeding to visit Kravan, Srash Srong, Ta Keo temples, is a pyramid on 5 levels whose total height is 22 metres and dedicated to Shiva, continuing to visit most rememberable Temples that build from 9th to 11th cntury such as: Preah Rup, Preah Neak Pean , Preah Khan & Ta Phrom Temple, was a monastery built by Jayavarman VII as a residence for his mother. Ta Prohm has been controversially left to the destructive power of the jungle by French archeologists to show how nature can destroy man's work. It has been largely overgrown by the jungle and as you climb through the dilapidated stone structures you see many giant trees growing out of the top of the temple itself. Ta Prohm looks as many of the monuments did when European explorers first laid eyes on them. Drive back to Siem Reap town, stop for a look at Old Market & colonial quarter, take your time to enjoy a busy afternoon market, communicating with the local sales and all sorts of their produtcs. It's quite a sight to see, to give somewhat a picture of Cambodian social living.
